1.6. Formal education - education which is held in certain and structured environment (ex. in an educational or professional/training institution or at work) and is clearly defined as education (at the aspect of aims, time or resources). From the student's point of view, formal education is deliberate. It typically carries into validation and certification.

1.7. Non-formal education - refers to learning other than that provided through programmes covered by the definition of "formal education" provided in this Law;

1.8. Non-formal education and training – refers to the education which has clearly defined activities but which is not named in explicit manner as education (referring to learning objectives, the time or support of learning). From the student's point of view, informal education is deliberate.

1.9. Informal education - refers to education which results from daily activities cohered with job, family or leisure time. It is not authorized or structured in the aspect of aims, time or class support. In many cases, informal learning is casual from candidate's perspective. Informal learning results mainly do not take to certification but may be validated and certified within the scheme of recognition of prior learning. Informal learning refers also as a practical (experimental), additional or coincidental learning.

1.10. National Qualification Framework (NQF) – a national mechanism for classification of qualification given within the qualification national system according to the group criteria that determine the levels and types of learning outcomes.

1.11. Accreditation - the process by which the National Qualifications Authority (NQA) established by this Law, defines the institutions which assess candidates and issue certificates and diplomas (assessment institutions) and any body which carries out other functions on behalf of the NQA. Accredited institutions are subject to monitoring and auditing by the NQA.

1.12. Recognition of prior learning - the process of evaluating the knowledge, skills or wider competences which an individual has previously acquired through formal, non-formal or informal learning. This practical knowledge shall be used to give possibility of advancement to a person or exemptions from part of a course or qualification or credit towards a qualification.

1.13. School year - time period set by MEST.

1.14. Certification - the process of recognizing the achievements of candidates for qualifications via the issuance of a certificate or diploma.

1.15. Certificate – an official document attesting to a person’s completion of a course, educational or training programme or the requirements for award of a qualification or recording partial completion of a qualification.

1.16. Candidate - any person seeking certification of learning achievements acquired whether through formal, non-formal or informal learning.

1.17. Levels of qualification - levels defined within the hierarchy of the National Qualifications Framework – levels are differentiated by increases in the complexity, depth and independence of learning.

1.18. Evaluation of Learning Results - refers to processes, including examinations and tests, which are used to gather, interpret and evaluate the learning evidence of an individual – evaluation for qualifications may be done only by institutions or bodies approved by NQA for this purpose and known as evaluation bodies.

1.19. Standards - measurable indicators of achievement defined either in terms of qualitative or quantitative criteria that are required to be achieved by candidates for the award of qualifications.

1.20. Credit - a numerical value given to qualifications or parts of qualifications, which represents the volume of learning required to achieve the qualification or a part of the qualification. Credit can be accumulated towards a qualification or transferred between qualifications or systems of qualifications.

1.21. Competence - the ability to perform activities based on the required standards, with the use of appropriate practical and theoretical knowledge, creative and practical skills.

1.22. Qualification - an official recognition of achievement that recognizes completion of education or training, or satisfactory performance in a test or examination.
